SHEA'S FIRST YEAR

William Shea, Jr. wasn't going to let a little paint on his pants spoil the historical moment for him and his family.

The date was April 17, 1964 and Shea and the rest of his family were about to take their seats to watch the first inning in a new stadium dedicated to his late father. William Shea, Sr. was of course the prominent attorney who was mainly responsible for the return of National League baseball to New York.

"As we walked into the stadium we were all so proud of our father for the work he did," the son recalled. "It was a glorious day, but we all knew that the stadium wasn't completely finished. I found out first hand.

"I took my seat and wound up sitting in paint," he went on. "I went upstairs to get a Wall Street Journal, used it as a cushion and enjoyed the game."

The Pirates defeated the Mets, 4-3, that afternoon to begin a 44-year run at Shea Stadium, a run which will end in 2009 when the club moves into its new home at Citi Field.

However, before the move to Citi Field, let's take a more in-depth look back at that first game with Pittsburgh and the first season at Shea.

There was no lack of major news stories in 1964. That year, President Lyndon Baines Johnson signed the Civil Rights Act, The Beatles made their first live performance on American television, appearing on the "Ed Sullivan Show," plans were announced to build the New York World Trade Center and the World's Fair opened on April 22nd, five days after the inaugural contest at Shea.

"The day before the opener, I was standing in centerfield with the late Rod Kanehl," remembered relief pitcher Bill Wakefield. "We were looking up at the new stadium and Rod said to me with a laugh, 'Wake, do you think we are good enough to play in this stadium?'"

Righthander Jack Fisher started the opener for the Mets and picked up the loss as he allowed three earned runs and 11 hits with one walk and four strikeouts in 6.2 innings.

"It was probably the biggest game I was in, aside from the games I pitched in the pennant races for Baltimore in the early 1960's," said Fisher. "I remember they still hadn't laid down the paint in back of home plate in the stands.

"Everything was white cement," he continued. "So when the ball was hit I really had no idea where it was going. Sometimes when there was a ground ball to the shortstop, I went to cover first. I always liked to pitch in Shea Stadium and I will miss it. I opened the stadium and I would like nothing better than to be there when it closes."

The first batter ever at Shea was Pirates' shortstop Dick Schofield who popped out to second baseman Larry Burright to begin the game.

"It certainly was a nice honor to be the first batter at Shea," Schofield explained. "Shea was such a big improvement over the Polo Grounds. About 20 years later we staged a reunion of the first pitch with Jack Fisher, catcher Jesse Gonder and home plate umpire Tom Gorman. I think I popped out again."

Bob Friend was the Pirates pitcher and he was the winner with a complete-game performance, three runs and seven hits with one walk and five strikeouts.

"It was nice to open a new stadium," said Friend. "I pitched nine openers for the Pirates, but this was obviously one of the most memorable. It was a beautiful day and the stadium was packed. Willie Stargell led off the second inning with a home run and that got us going. The main thing is the fact we won."

First baseman Tim Harkness began the game for the Mets by grounding out to Schofield at shortstop.

"I recall the water being pretty heavy in the outfield," said Tim. "It didn't drain that well. When we got to the park on Opening Day, our dressing room was flooded and they had a heck of a time clearing it out.

"We had a lot of celebrities around with the opening of the stadium and the World's Fair. I talked to Chuck Connors, who was on "The Rifleman" on television. A few days after the stadium opening, a group of us went over to the World's Fair and all of a sudden I look up and President Johnson is coming out of the helicopter. It was a crazy time."

The Mets, behind, 1-0, scored three runs in the bottom of the fourth to take a temporary 3-1 lead. Ron Hunt led off the fourth and doubled to right. He tallied the Mets first run at Shea on a single by Gonder.

"1964 was a great year for me personally," added Hunt. "I scored the first run at the new park and became the first Met to be voted to the All-Star Game, which also was at Shea. It's something I will never forget."

After Gonder's hit, leftfielder Frank Thomas singled, putting Jesse at third base.

"Moving into Shea was great for me and my family," said Frank. "The stadium was state of the art and having the World's Fair next door was an added bonus for my wife and kid. They got passes every day and were over there while I was busy playing."

Centerfielder Jim Hickman followed Thomas and was hit by a pitch, forcing him to leave the game. He remembered there was a problem with the shower in the locker room.

"They put the wrong heads on the showers and we did have a hard time that day, but they did get that fixed pretty quickly." Hickman laughed. "There just were a lot of kinks that had to be ironed out."

Amado Samuel doubled in two runs to provide the Mets with a 3-1 advantage. The Pirates erased the lead with single runs in the fifth, sixth and ninth innings.

"The Communications Workers of America were on strike," recounted long-time Mets employee Bob Mandt, who was the Ticket Manager at the time. "The World's Fair area was affected and that affected us. There was only one telephone that worked in the entire stadium and that was in my office. All of the press had to go back to their offices to write, except Dick Young of the Daily News. Dick found out that I had a phone that worked and I let him use it."

THOUGHTS FROM METS PERSONNEL AND PLAYERS ON THE OPENER AND THE 1964 SEASON:

MATT WINNICK-ASSISTANT PUBLIC RELATIONS DIRECTOR: "Even the umpires were excited about the Shea opening. Tom Gorman, who was born in Closter, NJ, asked if it was possible for him to be behind the plate in the first game and he got the assignment."

RALPH KINER-METS ANNOUCER: "Before the first game, Casey Stengel told the media, 'I don't know whether it's the Mets or the World's Fair that is drawing all these people.'"

AL JACKSON-PITCHER: On seeing Shea for the first time: "It was like going to heaven. The Polo Grounds was old and past its prime. In the Polo Grounds, we used to call our locker room 'doubledeck.' Casey and the coaches were on the top and the players were on the bottom. It was a different world at Shea."

GEORGE ALTMAN-OUTFIELDER: "I remember in our second series against the Reds, Vada Pinson hit a long home run that reached the middle of the scoreboard. I thought to myself that this was going to be a great park for home runs. Nothing could have been further from the truth."

DAN REILLY-THE ORIGINAL MR. MET: "On Opening Day I worked as a promotional assistant to Tom Meany. I didn't start being Mr. Met until May that season. I used to dress in the locker room with the players and I would mainly work in between games of doubleheaders. Herb Norman, our equipment manger back then, would have my big head waiting for me and the guys didn't know what was happening the first time I got dressed."

PETE FLYNN-LEAD PERSON ON THE GROUNDSCREW: "We had some logistical problems on the first day that we were able to overcome. The pumps broke and we had six inches of water in the hallways. The outfield went up and down like the oceans if you stood in certain spots. We put plywood on the outfield to dry up the field. Also, Casey complained that we had no fences in the leftfield and rightfield corners. We put them in for the second game."

DICK COLLINS-FIRST METS TEAM PHOTOGRAPHER: "Because of the telephone strike we had no way to update the scoreboard. So every three innings I ran to the nurse's room and called the Daily News and put the scores on the board. We did that every three innings. By the way, the strike lasted for 18 days."

The National League posted its seventh straight All-Star Game victory with a 7-4 win over the American League on July 7, 1964 at Shea Stadium. Shea's lone All-Star Game ended in dramatic fashion as Philadelphia's Johnny Callison stroked a three-run, walk-off home run in the bottom off the ninth inning off Boston's Dick Radatz to cap a four-run frame for the NL.

San Francisco's Willie Mays started the ninth inning rally with a walk and stolen base. He scored on an infield single by teammate Orlando Cepeda and error by Yankees' first baseman Joe Pepitone. The Cardinals' Curt Flood ran for Cepeda and Cincinnati's Johnny Edwards followed with a walk. Two outs later, Callison sent National League fans home happy.

The AL jumped out on top 1-0 in the first inning on a RBI single by Minnesota's Harmon Killebrew off Los Angeles' Don Drysdale.

The Cubs' Billy Williams and St. Louis' Ken Boyer each belted solo home runs in the bottom of the fourth off Kansas City's John Wyatt to give the National League a 2-1 lead.

The NL extended its lead to 3-1 in the fifth when Pittsburgh's Roberto Clemente singled and scored from first on a two-out double by the Cardinals' Dick Groat.

The American League tied the contest up 3-3 in the sixth when the Yankees' Mickey Mantle and Killebrew opened the frame with singles. One out later, Baltimore's Brooks Robinson tripled both runs home as Mays just missed what would have been a spectacular diving catch.

The AL retook a one run lead in the seventh inning. The Yankees' Elston Howard was hit by a pitch and Kansas City's Rocky Colavito laced a pinch-hit double to put runners at second and third. The Angels' Jim Fregosi lofted a sacrifice fly to center to score Howard.

Boyer finished 2-4 for the NL while Killebrew was 3-4 and Robinson went 2-4 for the AL.

Ron Hunt became the first Met to start an All-Star Game with his appearance at second base. Hunt went 1-3 with a single in the third off the Angels' Dean Chance.

AND THE NAME IS...
"THE NAME IS METS...JUST PLAIN METS."

The name Mets was judged by club owner Mrs. Joan Payson as the one that best met five basic criteria:

1) It met public and press acceptance;
2) It was closely related to the team's corporate name (Metropolitan Baseball Club, Inc);
3) It was descriptive of the Metropolitan area;
4) It had a brevity that delighted copy readers everywhere;
5) It had historical background, referring to the Metropolitans of the 19th century American Association.

Other names considered included Rebels, Skyliners, NYBs, Burros (for the five boroughs), Continentals, Avengers... As well as Jets and Islanders, names that would eventually find their way into the New York sports scene.

THE METS LOGO

The circular Mets logo was unveiled on November 16, 1961 and has gone virtually unchanged throughout the history of the club. The shape of the insignia, with its orange stitching, represents a baseball, and the bridge in the foreground symbolizes that the Mets, in bringing back the National League to New York, represent all five boroughs. It's not just a skyline in the background, but has special meaning. At the left is a church spire, symbolic of Brooklyn, the borough of churches. The second building from the left is the Williamsburg Savings Bank, the tallest building in Brooklyn. Next is the Woolworth Building. After a general skyline view of midtown comes the Empire State Building. At the far right is the United Nations Building.

SHEA STADIUM IN 1975

In 1975, Shea was the center of the New York's sports universe. The Mets, Yankees, Jets and Giants all called Shea home that season, marking the first and only time in professional sports history that two baseball teams and two football teams shared the same facility in the same year. The Giants, like the Yankees, had to find another venue to call home while Yankee Stadium underwent renovations. Only the baseball teams were able to post winning records that season: the Mets went 82-80 (42-39 at Shea) while the Yankees were 83-75 (43-35 at Shea) in 1975. The Jets were 3-11 (1-6 at home) and the Giants were 5-9 (2-5 in their only season at Shea) before they moved into their new stadium in the Meadowlands the following year.

- Following the 1975 season, Staub was traded to the Detroit Tigers, where he spent four seasons as an outfielder and designated hitter...In 1978, was voted the American League's outstanding designated hitter, as he batted .273 and drove in 121 runs...Became the first player to play in all 162 regular season games exclusively as a designated hitter...Started in the outfield for the American League in the 1976 All-Star Game.

RETIRED NUMBERS

On April 15, 1997 in a special ceremony at Shea Stadium, the chairman of the Major League Executive Council, Allan H. "Bud" Selig announced the retirement of Jackie Robinson's uniform Number 42 throughout major league baseball.

"The day Jackie Robinson stepped on a major league field will forever be remembered as baseball's proudest moment," Selig said standing side-by-side with Jackie's widow Rachel and President Bill Clinton. "Major League Baseball is retiring Number 42 in tribute to his great achievements and for the significant contributions he made to society. Number 42 belongs to Jackie Robinson for the ages."

According to a news release issued by the Office of the Commissioner that night: "Number 42 will never again be issued by a major league club to any player or other on-field personnel, other than those who are currently wearing it. Those who are may wear them for the remainder of their careers."

Butch Huskey, who wore 42 as a tribute to Robinson, was the last Met to wear the number before Mo Vaughn donned the number in 2002...Mariano Rivera of the Yankees is the only current major leaguer who wears uniform number 42.

Tom Seaver is the only Met player to have his number retired. Number 41 was retired in a tribute at Shea Stadium on July 24, 1988.

Gil Hodges' number 14 was retired on June 9, 1973 and Casey Stengel's 37 was retired on September 2, 1965.

CITI FIELD

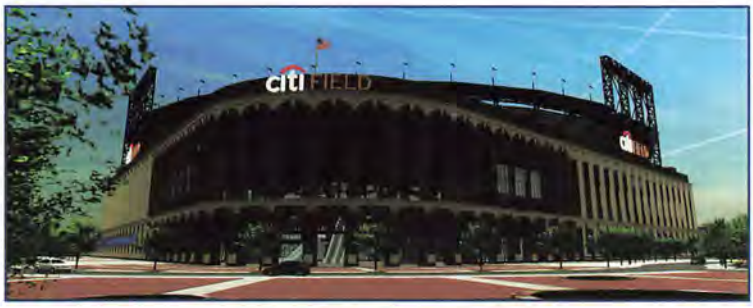
Citi - the leading global financial services company operating in more than 100 countries - and the New York Mets on November 13, 2006 announced an exclusive 20-year, multifaceted strategic marketing and business partnership that includes the naming rights for Citi Field, the new world-class home of the Mets, opening in April of 2009.

The fully integrated partnership also includes, for Citi, brand and business unit presence throughout the new ballpark; rights to use the Mets and Citi Field marks; the purchase of media on SportsNet New York (SNY); the launch of community outreach initiatives; and the development of international business opportunities in sports and entertainment.

Citi Field will feature unprecedented sightlines, amenities, and comfort for Mets fans, sports fans and visitors to the New York metropolitan area. The open-air ballpark connects the Mets' National League heritage to the future and to New York City through a number of unique design elements. Citi Field will feature natural grass and capacity for approximately 45,000 fans. A contoured seating configuration will bring spectators closer to the field on all levels to provide optimal sightlines for a more intimate and entertaining experience throughout the park.

AMENITIES/FAN ENHANCEMENTS

- Citi Field's baseball-specific design produces superior sightlines for the game throughout the venue, and a more intimate atmosphere with seating angled toward the infield and set down closer to the field. Forty-two percent of the ballpark's seats will be located in the Field seating level.
- Citi Field will feature some of the widest, unobstructed concourses in new sports facilities. Concession stands and restrooms will be located within the facility's exterior walls leaving the circulation areas with uninterrupted views of the field.
- Wider seats provide enhanced comfort throughout the venue while more space between the rows allows for more legroom.
- The Field Level will feature 360-degree, walk-around circulation around the ballpark with expansive field views and ample standing room. The Promenade Level features a split-deck design providing uninterrupted views into the ballpark from the circulation and concession areas.
- Fans throughout Citi Field will have access to multiple sit-down, climate-controlled restaurants, bars, clubs, and lounges, a majority of which will provide field views, and a wide range of menu choices.
- Numerous permanent attractions built into the master plan add to Citi Field's family-friendly environment, including: an expanded Fan Fest family entertainment area within the ballpark on the Field Level, an enhanced outfield Picnic Area adjacent to the batter's eye, and multiple party deck areas.



ARCHITECTURAL HIGHLIGHTS

- Inspired by tradition, Citi Field will be clad in brick, limestone, granite and cast stone, with the brick closely resembling the masonry used at Ebbets Field, both in color and texture. Exposed steel will be painted dark blue and the seats will be dark green.
- A structural steel "bridge" motif throughout Citi Field reinforces the Mets' connection to New York's five boroughs while also symbolically linking the team's storied tradition to its future. Design elements call for exposed trusses, light towers, scoreboard structure, and a roof canopy that recall the ballparks of yesteryear.

JACKIE ROBINSON ROTUNDA

This landmark partnership between Citi and the Mets accelerates their current significant commitments to the community with new resources to develop and launch outreach platforms and programs in and beyond New York City, involving both the Citi Foundation and the Mets Foundation.

As the first step in this effort, the Mets and Citi will commission a sculpture and name the entry rotunda of Citi Field - inspired by the classic design of Ebbets Field - in honor of Jackie Robinson, the legendary pioneer and great American who broke baseball's color barrier with the Brooklyn Dodgers in 1947. The partnership will include a significant commitment to recognize and perpetuate, in and around the rotunda and the community, Robinson's legacy and the "nine values" he embodied as articulated by his daughter and Jackie Robinson Foundation Vice Chair, Sharon Robinson: courage, integrity, determination, persistence, citizenship, justice, commitment, teamwork, and excellence.

In addition, Citi and the Mets through a pledge to the Jackie Robinson Foundation will help create the Jackie Robinson Foundation Museum and Education Center in lower Manhattan. As much as a tribute to Jackie Robinson, the Museum and Education Center will educate children about Jackie Robinson's pioneering spirit and leading role in social change.

SETTING HIGHLIGHTS

A landscaped plaza around the ballpark will welcome fans, improve access and egress, and create space for pre- and post-game activities, vendors, and other amenities.

Various areas of Citi Field will reinforce the setting of the venue and the Mets connection to the City of New York and baseball history, including: the Ebbets Club behind home plate.

ON THE DIAMOND

FIELD ORIENTATION: The four-acre natural turf field will expand from home in a northeasterly direction with the leftfield line stretching northward, and the rightfield line extending eastward.

RIGHT FIELD PORCH: In rightfield there will be a singular deck that will be situated to extend into and over fair territory by eight feet.

PITCHER FRIENDLY: Distinctive asymmetrical outfield walls, along with generous dimensions (LF - 335'; LC - 379'; CF - 408'; RC - 383'; RF - 330') make for a traditional pitcher's park.

CITI AND THE METS INTERNATIONALLY

Citi and the Mets will pursue international sports, media, and entertainment related business ventures in the years ahead. Citi's position as the leading financial institution in the world and the Mets' expertise in sports and entertainment provide this partnership with unprecedented resources and understanding of market dynamics to launch, develop, or acquire socially responsible, world-class businesses.

ABOUT CITI FIELD

The Mets are privately financing the construction and operation of the new 45,000-capacity, open-air venue and will construct, operate, manage, and maintain Citi Field at their own expense. The Mets estimate the amount of their total private investment to be in excess of $600 million. In addition, the City of New York will contribute $90 million in capital funds, and the State will contribute $75 million to fund infrastructure costs related to the approximately $800 million project. Construction of Citi Field is creating more than 6,000 temporary full-time equivalent jobs, while ongoing operations in it are expected to result in approximately 1,000 permanent full-time equivalent jobs.

The Mets have partnered with an advisory committee of community leaders chaired by Queens Borough President Helen Marshall to develop a comprehensive diversity plan that will ensure the involvement of minority- and women-owned businesses in Queens and the immediate area.

The Mets unveiled architectural and design plans for the new ballpark in April 2006. Pre-construction work began in early summer 2006 and actual construction commenced with excavation, foundation, and pile-driving work in August.

DESIGN AND CONSTRUCTION

Sterling Equities, the Mets ownership group, has expertise and experience in the development and management of premium New York City properties, as well as new minor league ballparks in Coney Island and Port St. Lucie, FL. The Citi Field project is developed by Queens Ballpark Company, L.L.C. and has been designed by the internationally renowned architects of HOK Sport. HOK Sport has designed and renovated 13 of the 30 major league ballparks in use today and seven of the last eight to open in Major League Baseball. Hunt-Bovis, a joint venture of Hunt Construction Group and Bovis Lend Lease, will provide construction management.

THE PROGRESSION

As of February, 2008, approximately 85% of Citi Field's structural steel frame is complete. Half of the Jackie Robinson Rotunda steel truss is in place, with steel installation for the light towers, scoreboard and sunscreen soon to begin.

Most of the structural precast – the tiered concrete structures that support the ballpark's seats and stairways – is in place. The risers for the Field Level, Right Field Porch and Club Level are set, and the Promenade Level is nearly complete. The four main star towers are complete, and installation of the ballpark escalators and elevators is in progress.

The architectural precast, or brick façade, is visible on the west side of the ballpark as well as on the south side facing Roosevelt Avenue. This rich brick exterior also envelops the administration building which will house the Mets offices, including the future retail/storefront space that fronts 126th Street.

Site work continues with excavation and installation for underground plumbing and electric in the south and west parking lots.

Complete details and visuals are online at mets.com and losmets.com.

- Hurled 7.2 no-hit innings on September 29th vs. Florida…Paul Hoover broke up the bid with an infield single to third…It was the deepest into a game that a Mets pitcher has gone without surrendering a hit since Tom Glavine also went 7.2 innings on May 23, 2004 vs. Colorado.
- Combined with Willie Collazo and Carlos Muniz on a one-hit, 13-0 shutout over the Marlins in that game…The last nine inning one-hitter was hurled by Orlando Hernandez (5.1 innings), Roberto Hernandez (1.0 inning), Darren Oliver (0.2 innings) and Guillermo Mota (1.0 inning) on September 3, 2006 at Houston…The Mets lost that game, 2-1…Aubrey Huff had a second inning single.

BIG COMEBACKS

Come-from-behind victories have always been a big part of Mets history. Possibly the most dramatic in club history came on June 30, 2000, when New York overcame an 8-1 eighth-inning defecit to overtake the Atlanta Braves, 11-8. In that contest, Mike Piazza's game-winning, three-run home run capped off an amazing 10-run eighth inning. The ten runs tied a club record for most runs scored in an inning.

However, the biggest comeback triumph in club annals came on September 2, 1972 when the Mets trailed the Houston Astros, 8-0, after seven innings. Sparked by Ken Boswell's three-run home run, the Mets sent 12 batters to the plate in the eighth, exploding for seven runs and cutting the deficit to 8-7. In the ninth, New York would bat around again, scoring four runs. Cleon Jones' two-run double was the deciding blow as the Metsposted the greatest come-from-behind win in club history with an 11-8 victory.

SELF SUPPORT

In the entire 45-year history of the club, only two Mets pitchers have hit a grand slam home run.

The first one came in the club's second season, on July 15, 1963. Frank Thomas, Joe Hicks and Larry Burright were the runners when Carl Willey belted a drive over the Polo Grounds right field wall off Houston's Ken Johnson. The home run came in the second inning of the Mets' 14-5 win over the Colt 45s, and also represented the first home run ever by a Mets pitcher.

Four years later, on May 20, 1967, Jack Hamilton blasted a bases-loaded home run at Shea off St. Louis' Al Jackson. Tommy Davis, Ken Boyer and Jerry Grote marched home ahead of Hamilton, who connected in the second inning of the Mets 11-9 loss to the Cards.

And it hasn't happened since.

Mets HISTORY

SHEA STADIUM
1964 • 2008
Mets

METS HALL OF FAME

JOAN PAYSON: The majority stockholder when the team was formed. Mrs. Payson was the team's biggest fan and she always could be found sitting in her box to the right of the Mets dugout. An heir to the Whitney family, Joan was a minority owner of the New York Giants and voted against their leaving in 1957. Payson was a majority stockholder when the franchise was granted in 1960 and served as the Mets president from 1968-1975. She was inducted into the Mets Hall of Fame in 1981.

CASEY STENGEL: "The Ol' Perfessor" was the first manager in club history. Stengel dubbed the Mets the "loveable losers" but his style and personality outweighed the team's performance on the field. The Mets were 175-404 in his three and a half years at the helm, before he fractured his hip on July 24, 1965, forcing his retirement. Casey continued to work for the Mets as a scout, public speaker and vice president before he died of cancer on September 29, 1975 at the age of 85. Stengel's uniform number 37 was retired on September 2, 1965 and is displayed on Shea Stadium's leftfield wall. He was elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1966 and later was inducted into the Mets Hall of Fame in 1981.

GIL HODGES: Managed the 1969 Miracle Mets to the World Championship in just his second season. Gil was named Manager of the Year by The Sporting News and the National League Manager of the Year by the Associated Press that splendid season. Guided the Mets from 1968-1971 (339-309) before his death from a heart attack on April 2, 1972, saddened and shocked the organization. He is the fourth-winningest manager in Mets history. He also cracked the club's first home run off Larry Jackson on April 11, 1962 at St. Louis. Hodges' uniform number 14 was retired on June 9, 1973 and is hanging on the leftfield wall. He was inducted into the Mets Hall of Fame in 1982.

GEORGE M. WEISS: The front office architect of the 1969 Mets. Weiss was appointed president of the Mets in 1961, signaling the return of National League baseball to New York. His first bold move was to hire Casey Stengel as the team's first manager and under his direction the Mets established city attendance records. He remained at the helm as the Mets president until 1966. Weiss was elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1971 and he was inducted into the Mets Hall of Fame in 1982.

WILLIAM A. SHEA: The attorney for whom the stadium is named after was a driving force to bring National League baseball back to New York. Shea spearheaded Mayor Robert Wagner's four-man baseball task force, which helped form the proposed rival Continental League. Major League baseball granted New York a National League expansion franchise in 1960 and the Continental League agreed to disband. He was inducted into the Mets Hall of Fame in 1983.

JOHNNY MURPHY: A native New Yorker and the famed "Fordham Fireman," he was the Mets chief scout in 1961 and helped assemble the 1962 team. He moved into the front office as a Vice President in 1964. "Murph" presided over the Mets as the team's General Manager from 1968-1969, acquiring Donn Clendenon to key the World Championship run. He was inducted into the Mets Hall of Fame in 1983.

LINDSEY NELSON: An original member of the Mets broadcast team, Nelson is fondly remembered for his charm, description of the action on the field, knowledge of the game and outlandish sport jackets. "Hello everybody, I'm Lindsey Nelson" opened every Mets broadcast. Teamed with Bob Murphy and Ralph Kiner, Lindsey covered the Mets from 1962-1978 and was honored by the Baseball Hall of Fame with the Ford C. Frick Award in 1994. He was inducted into the Mets Hall of Fame in 1984.

BOB MURPHY: An original Met, Bob Murphy was with the team from their inception in 1962 through the end of the 2003 season. Bob finished his career broadcasting more games in New York than any other sports broadcaster in history. He was named the 1994 Ford C. Frick Award Winner, recognizing his broadcast contributions to baseball and also was inducted to the Baseball Hall of Fame. The trio of Lindsey Nelson, Ralph Kiner and Murphy alternated from TV and radio, but in 1982, Bob moved into the radio booth permanently. Fans came to eagerly anticipate the "Happy Recap" at the end of each winning Mets game. He was inducted into the Mets Hall of Fame in 1984.

RALPH KINER: Also an original Met, Ralph Kiner joined the broadcast booth after a 10-year Hall of Fame career with the Pittsburgh Pirates, Chicago Cubs and Cleveland Indians. He was joined by Lindsey Nelson and Bob Murphy alternating from television to radio, before moving to the TV booth in 1982, where he still can be found today. Ralph has earned three Emmy Awards for broadcasting and "Kiner's Korner" is synonymous with Mets baseball. Ralph was elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1975 and he was inducted into the Mets Hall of Fame in 1984.

BUD HARRELSON: The feisty middle infielder was named to two All-Star teams during his tenure with the Mets (1965-1977). The smooth fielding shortstop didn't commit an error in 12 World Series contests (1969 and 1973) and captured a Gold Glove in 1971. Ranks second in franchise history in games played (1,322), and at-bats (4,390), third in triples (45), fifth in hits (1,029) and eighth in runs (490). Harrelson would later manage the Mets from 1990-1991, compiling a 145-129 mark. Bud is the only man in Mets history to be in uniform for both of the franchise's World Championships (player in '69 and coach in '86). He was inducted into the Mets Hall of Fame in 1986.

RUSTY STAUB: "Le Grande Orange" was one of the most beloved Mets. Staub set a then club-record with 105 RBI in 1975 and holds the franchise mark with 24 pinch-hits in a season (1983). Rusty belted three home runs in the 1973 NLCS and hit .423 in the World Series vs. Oakland. He spent nine years in New York (1972-1975, 1981-1985)...Is ninth on the club's all-time list in RBI (399), and ranks second in pinch-hit list (77) and pinch hit home runs (six). Rusty maintains his relationship with the club as a good will ambassador. He was inducted into the Mets Hall of Fame in 1986.

METS HALL OF FAME

TOM SEAVER: "The Franchise" sums it up. Seaver captured three Cy Young Awards, won 311 games, earned Rookie of the Year honors in 1967 and won 20 or more games four times with the Mets. A nine-time All-Star with New York, "Tom Terrific" ranks first in franchise history in wins (198), complete games (171), ERA (2.57), innings pitched (3,045), strikeouts (2,541) and shutouts (44), and second in games (401). Pitched with the Mets from 1967-1977 and returned for one final year in 1983. Seaver was elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1992, with the highest percentage (98.84%) in Hall of Fame history. Tom's uniform number 41 was retired on July 24, 1988 and is displayed on the leftfield wall. He returned to the organization in 1999 as a television announcer and was inducted into the Mets Hall of Fame in 1988.

JERRY KOOSMAN: "Kooz" won 140 games with the Mets in his 12 years from 1967-1978. Jerry won 19 games, including seven shutouts as a rookie in 1968. He captured two games in the 1969 World Series, including the series clincher in Game Five at Shea. The two-time All-Star was discovered by the Mets while he was pitching for the US Army. Koosman ranks second in club history in starts (346), complete-games (108), innings pitched (2,545) and shutouts (26) and is third in wins (140) and strikeouts (1,799). He was inducted into the Mets Hall of Fame in 1989.

ED KRANEPOOL: "Steady Eddie" was the only man to play in each of the club's first 18 seasons (1962-1979) and holds the club mark in games played (1,853), at-bats (5,436), total bases (2,047), hits (1,418), doubles (225) and pinch-hits (90). Ed also ranks fourth in club history in RBI (614) and eighth in home runs (118). Signed out of James Monroe High School in the Bronx, he was named to the 1965 All-Star Team. Kranepool, who was a fixture at first base for the Mets, had a home run in Game Three of the 1969 World Series and delivered a game-breaking two-run single in the deciding Game Five of the 1973 NLCS. He was inducted into the Mets Hall of Fame in 1990.

CLEON JONES: Cleon Jones will forever be remembered as the man who caught the final out of the 1969 World Series. Cleon batted .340 with 25 doubles, 12 home runs and 75 RBI and started in the All-Star Game in 1969. Cleon established a then-club record 23-game hitting streak in 1970. Jones, who played with New York in 1963 and from 1965-1975, had a .281 lifetime batting average with the Mets. Ranks second on the all-time club list in hits (1,188), fourth in triples (33) and in games played (1,201), fifth in runs (563), and sixth in doubles (182) and in extra-base hits (308). He was inducted into the Mets Hall of Fame in 1991.

JERRY GROTE: Jerry Grote was the man behind the mask and the man behind New York's brilliant pitching staffs from 1966-1977. Jerry was named to the NL All-Star Team in 1968 and 1974 and was one of the top defensive catchers in the game. Grote ranks third on the club's all-time list of games played (1,235) and ninth in hits (994). He established a major league record with 20 putouts in Tom Seaver's 19-strikeout performance in 1970. He was inducted into the Mets Hall of Fame in 1992.

TUG McGRAW: The sparkplug closer for the Mets helped drive the 1973 Mets with the slogan "Ya Gotta Believe." McGraw, a spirited lefthanded reliever was with New York from 1965-1967 and from 1969-1974. Was 1-0 with a three saves and a 1.66 ERA in the 1969 and 1973 post-seasons. Had a then club-record 27 saves in 1972 and 25 more in 1973. McGraw was the winning pitcher in the 1972 All-Star Game. Tug ranks fourth on the all-time club list in saves (85) and fifth in games pitched (361). He was inducted into the Mets Hall of Fame in 1993.

MOOKIE WILSON: Mookie was a fan favorite while patrolling centerfield from 1980-1989. Wilson returned home to Shea in 1993, working in the front office, before moving onto the field as the first base coach from 1997-2002. He is currently maganging the Brooklyn Cyclones. He is the club's all-time leader in stolen bases (281) and triples (62), fourth in hits (1,112) and runs (592), seventh in doubles (170), total bases (1,586) and extra-base hits (292). Perhaps the most memorable at-bat in Mets history is Mookie dodging a two-strike wild pitch from Bob Stanley in Game Six of 1986 World Series which allowed the tying run to score before hitting a dribbler that trickled under Bill Buckner's glove, sending Ray Knight home with the winning run. Wilson was inducted into the Mets Hall of Fame in 1996.

KEITH HERNANDEZ: "Mex" was not only the co-captain, but the leader of the Mets in the late 1980's, which captured the 1986 World Series and the 1988 National League Eastern Division. Hernandez played in New York from 1983-1989 and ranks third in batting average (.297), seventh on the club's all-time list in RBI (468), and ninth in runs (455) and tenth in hits (939). His slick fielding defense at first base earned him 11 consecutive Gold Gloves. Keith's arrival helped turn around the fortunes of the franchise. Hernandez returned to the organization in 1999, assisting the club in spring training and broadcasting games on TV during the year. Keith remains on the air as a color commentator with SNY. He was inducted into the Mets Hall of Fame in 1997.

GARY CARTER: "The Kid" was the final piece of the puzzle after he was acquired prior to the 1985 season. A four-time All-Star with the Mets, Carter hit two home runs in Game Three of 1986 World Series and started the game-winning rally in the 10th inning of Game Six with a single. The co-captain hit 89 home runs, including his 300th in 1988 and drove in 349 runs in his five years (1985-1989) in New York. His enthusiasm for the game and passion for catching endeared him to the fans. He was inducted into the Mets Hall of Fame in 2001 and Major League Baseball's Hall of Fame in 2003.

TOMMIE AGEE: Agee played with the Mets from 1968-1972, batting .262 in 661 games, with 107 doubles, 14 triples, 82 home runs, 265 RBI and 92 stolen bases. Earned a Gold Glove and set then club-records with 182 hits and 278 total bases in 1970. Tommie became part of World Series lore, when in Game Three of the 1969 World Series vs. Baltimore, he led off the game with a home run off Jim Palmer and made two sensational catches that saved a combined five runs. He is also generally perceived to have hit the longest home run ever at Shea Stadium. In the second inning on April 10, 1969 vs. Montreal, he belted a ball into the upper deck in leftfield off Larry Jaster, the only fair ball in the stadium's 42-year history to reach the third deck. Tommie was elected to the Mets Hall of Fame in 2002.

The National League posted its seventh straight All-Star Game victory with a 7-4 win over the American League on July 7, 1964 at Shea Stadium. Shea's lone All-Star Game ended in dramatic fashion as Philadelphia's Johnny Callison stroked a three-run, walk-off home run in the bottom off the ninth inning off Boston's Dick Radatz to cap a four-run frame for the NL.

San Francisco's Willie Mays started the ninth inning rally with a walk and stolen base. He scored on an infield single by teammate Orlando Cepeda's infield single and error by Yankees' first baseman Joe Pepitone. The Cardinals' Curt Flood ran for Cepeda and Cincinnati's Johnny Edwards followed with a walk. Two outs later, Callison sent National League fans home happy.

The AL jumped out on top 1-0 in the first inning on a RBI single by Minnesota's Harmon Killebrew off Los Angeles' Don Drysdale.

The Cubs' Billy Williams and St. Louis' Ken Boyer each belted solo home runs in the bottom of the fourth off Kansas City's John Wyatt to give the National League a 2-1 lead.

The NL extended its lead to 3-1 in the fifth when Pittsburgh's Roberto Clemente singled and scored from first on a two-out double by the Cardinals' Dick Groat.

The American League tied the contest up 3-3 in the sixth when the Yankees' Mickey Mantle and Killebrew opened the frame with singles. One out later, Baltimore's Brooks Robinson tripled both runs home as Mays just missed what would have been a spectacular diving catch.

The AL retook a one run lead in the seventh inning. The Yankees' Elston Howard was hit by a pitch and Kansas City's Rocky Colavito laced a pinch-hit double to put runners at second and third. The Angels' Jim Fregosi lofted a sacrifice fly to center to score Howard.

Boyer finished 2-4 for the NL while Killebrew was 3-4 and Robinson went 2-4 for the AL.

Ron Hunt became the first Met to start an All-Star Game with his appearance at second base. Hunt went 1-3 with a single in the third off the Angels' Dean Chance.

LONG SCORELESS STREAKS

The club record for consecutive shutout innings is 42, held by the 1969 World Champions from September 23-28 as they were gearing up for the playoffs... Included in that streak were six shutout frames vs. St. Louis on the 23rd, a complete game victory by Gary Gentry over the Cards on the 24th, complete game wins by Jerry Koosman and Tom Seaver at Philadelphia on the 26th and 27th and a 2-0 victory over the Phillies on the 28th...Just a few weeks earlier, the same Mets pitching staff had tossed 36 straight shutout innings from September 10-13...The longest the Mets have ever been held scoreless is 39 innings, from September 11-September 15, 1963.

CASEY'S LAST GAME

On Saturday afternoon, July 24, 1965, the Philadelphia Phillies defeated the Mets at Shea, 5-1...The game was the last in thedistinguished career of manager Casey Stengel...Stengel was forced into retirement by a broken hip he would suffer later that night...Here are some details of the game: Jim Bunning struck out 12, tossing a two-hitter for the Phillies... Johnny Lewis had both Met hits, including a solo home run in the fourth that provided New York's only run...Wes Covington went 3-3 with a double, a home run, and three RBI to lead the Phils...Richie Allen added three hits for Philadelphia and Dick Stuart cracked a home run.

NINE FOR NINE

The Mets' club record for the most hits in consecutive official at-bats is nine, set by Jose Vizcaino in 1996...Vizcaino's streak began on April 23rd with a double against the Reds at Shea...In Jose's next plate appearance, he hit a sacrifice...After that, he hit two singles, a double, two more singles, another double, a single, a triple and then struck out in the ninth inning against Jeff Parrett to end the streak on April 25th at St. Louis.

In 1999, John Olerud tied a Mets' club record with nine consecutive hits, from his final at-bat on September 16th at Houston to September 20th vs. Florida. The streak came to an end when he grounded to second in the third inning of the Mets' September 22nd contest vs. Montreal.

Olerud tied a National League record with his first-inning walk on September 22nd vs. Montreal. John tied a NL record, reaching base 15 straight times dating back to a single in his final at-bat on September 16th at Houston. Barry Bonds reached base 15 straight times from August 31-September 4, 2004 (9-9 with six walks).

SHEA STADIUM'S LONGEST HOME RUNS

It is generally perceived that Tommie Agee hit the longest home run in the history of Shea Stadium on April 10, 1969. In the second inning, Agee hit a drive into the upper deck in leftfield off the Expos' Larry Jaster, the only fair ball in the stadium's 33-year history to reach the upper deck.

Dave Kingman had several monumental blasts at Shea, including one that cleared the back fence in leftfield (which is 488' feet away from home) and reached the parking lot.

On September 4, 1998, Mike Piazza hit a 485-foot two run blast off Atlanta's Tom Glavine to give the Mets a 2-1 victory.

Mo Vaughn cracked a solo home run off Atlanta's Kevin Grybowski that traveled an estimated 505-feet and hit more than halfway up on the Budweiser advertisement on the centerfield scoreboard on June 26, 2002.

Darryl Strawberry pelted the rightfield scoreboard many times, including a moon shot off the Dodgers' Fernando Valenzuela on May 22, 1987. Straw also hit monster shots off the Reds' Jack Armstrong, July 7, 1988 and off the Astros' Dave Smith, July 19, 1986.

Other big blasts of note are: Leon Durham breaking a car window in the player's parking lot off Mark Bomback in 1980 and Bobby Bonilla hitting a parked bus off Jeff Innis on Opening Day, 1990. Richie Allen also cracked a couple of extremely long home runs at Shea.

HISTORY

TWO WINS IN ONE DAY

John Franco earned a save and a win (respectively) in a July 30, 1996 doubleheader vs. the Pirates at Shea and Armando Benitez saved both ends of a doubleheader on August 15, 2000 vs. Colorado. Only three pitchers in Mets history—Craig Anderson, Willard Hunter and Jesse Orosco—have won both ends of a doubleheader. Anderson did it on May 12, 1962, beating the Braves at the Polo Grounds, 3-2 and 8-7, with a combined three innings of shutout relief. Hunter accomplished the feat on August 23, 1964 at Shea when 1.2 innings of hitless relief earned him 2-1 and 5-4 wins over Chicago. Orosco joined the group on July 31, 1983 at Shea when he held the Pirates scoreless over a total of five relief innings en route to a pair of 12-inning wins, 7-6 and 1-0.

In the club's first ever trip to the postseason, the Mets sweep the best-of-five series vs. Atlanta, three games to none.

In Game One, trailing, 5-4, in the top of the eighth, New York rallied for five runs and a 9-5 win. Tom Seaver struggled, allowing five runs in 7.0 innings, but earned the victory.

In Game Two, two-run home runs by Tommie Agee, Ken Boswell and Cleon Jones lifted the Mets to an 11-6 win.

In front of 53,195 fans at Shea, New York advanced to the World Series with a 7-4 victory in Game Three. The lead changed hands three times before Wayne Garrett's two-run home run in the bottom of the fifth put the Mets ahead, 5-4. Nolan Ryan hurled 4.0 shutout innings to pick up the win and complete the sweep. Boswell hit .333 with two home runs and five RBI, while Agee batted .357 with two home runs and four RBI. Hank Aaron cracked a home run in each game and drove in seven runs for the Braves.

A jubilant Jerry Koosman leaps into the arm of catcher Jerry Grote after the final out of the 1969 World Series in Game Five vs. Baltimore.

The New York Mets entered the 1969 World Series as heavy underdogs against Baltimore. After falling in Game One, the Amazins' rattled off four straight wins to earn their first championship, just eight years after the franchise was born.

In Game One, Baltimore's leadoff batter Don Buford smacked a home run off Tom Seaver. Mike Cuellar and the Orioles went on to a 4-1 triumph.

In Game Two, Jerry Koosman tossed 6.0 no-hit innings before Paul Blair singled to lead off the seventh. With the game tied, 1-1, in the ninth, Ed Charles, Jerry Grote and Al Weis strung together consecutive two-out singles to give New York a 2-1 lead. Koosman retired the first two batters in the ninth, before walking the next two. Ron Taylor got the final out of the game, retiring Brooks Robinson to even the series at one game apiece.

A raucous Shea crowd of 56,335 watched the Mets shut out Baltimore, 5-0 in Game Three. Tommie Agee hit a leadoff home run off Jim Palmer, the only leadoff home run the Hall of Famer would ever allow, to put the Mets on the board early. In the fourth, the Orioles threatened, with runners at the corners and two outs, when Agee made a running, backhanding catch at the warning track in left-center to rob Elrod Hendricks. In the seventh, Baltimore loaded the bases with two outs, Blair laced a high drive to right-center, Agee running full tilt caught the ball sprawling on the warning track. Tommie had made two of the greatest World Series catches, ever just three innings apart.

In Game Four, Seaver out-dueled Cuellar in a thrilling 10-inning, 2-1 victory. Donn Clendenon belted a solo home run in the second to give the Mets a 1-0 lead, which would hold up until the ninth. The Orioles put runners at first and third with one out, Brooks Robinson laced a sinking line drive to right-center. Ron Swoboda made a full length, diving catch. The tying run scored, but the brilliant catch prevented further damage. In the bottom of the 10th, with runners at first and second and nobody out, J.C. Martin pinch-hit for Seaver. Martin dropped a bunt down and Orioles' pitcher Pete Richert fielded the ball, but his throw hit Martin and the ball caromed into rightfield allowing Rod Gaspar to score from second. The Mets were one win away from their first title, while Baltimore argued that Martin was outside the base-path.

The unthinkable occurred on October 16, 1969 at Shea, behind a 5-3 victory, New York's lovable losers were champions. The Orioles led 3-0 early, but home runs by Clendenon and Weis tied the game. In the eighth, Swoboda gave the Mets the lead with an RBI double. Koosman induced future Mets Manager Davey Johnson to fly out to Cleon Jones in leftfield for the final out. Jones (Sport Magazine) and Weis (BBWAA) were the Series MVP's.

New York captured their second pennant in five years with a thrilling five-game series win over Cincinnati.

In Game One, Pete Rose and Johnny Bench each belted home runs to upend Tom Seaver and the Mets, 2-1. Seaver allowed just six hits and fanned a NLCS record 13 batters in the losing effort.

Jon Matlack was brilliant, tossing a two-hit, 5-0 shutout in Game Two to even the series. Rusty Staub's solo home run in the fourth was the only run of the game until New York plated four runs in the ninth, two coming home on Jerry Grote's single.

The Mets scored all nine runs in the first four innings en route to a 9-2 victory at Shea in Game Three. Staub cracked a solo home run in the first and a three-run shot in the second. However, the game will always be remembered for the fight that broke out between Pete Rose and Buddy Harrelson after Rose slid hard into second base attempting to break up a double play. With the bench-clearing brawl behind them, Jerry Koosman continued to dominate the Reds.

Rose got his revenge with a 12th inning home run in Game Four to give the Reds a 2-1 victory and send the series to a fifth and deciding game.

Ed Kranepool gave New York a 2-0 lead in the first with a two-run single in Game Five in front of 50,323 fans at Shea. After Cincinnati tied the game 2-2 in the top of the fifth, the Mets exploded for four runs in the bottom of that frame. Cleon Jones, Willie Mays, Don Hahn and Harrelson each collected a RBI. Seaver and Tug McGraw held the Reds at bay as New York advanced to face Oakland in the World Series.

The great Willie Mays can not believe that Buddy Harrelson was called out at home in the 10th inning of Game Two of the 1973 World Series vs. Oakland... New York eventually won that contest, 10-7, in 12 innings on a RBI single by Mays.

New York lost its first ever postseason series, falling in a seven-game set to the Oakland Athletics.

In Game One, the A's nipped the Mets, 2-1, despite managing just four hits off Jon Matlack and Tug McGraw. Second baseman Felix Millan's error in the third inning proved costly as Oakland's only two runs of the game would score in that inning.

New York evened the series with a 10-7, 12-inning victory. Oakland scored two runs in the ninth to tie the game, 6-6, to force extra innings. Willie Mays singled home Bud Harrelson with the go-ahead run in the 12th, which would prove to be Mays's last hit in the majors.

The Series returned to Shea and Wayne Garrett cracked a solo home run as the Mets jumped on top, 2-0 in the first inning of Game Three. Once again, Oakland rallied to tie the game in the eighth and scored in the 11th for a 3-2 victory.

The Mets tied the series at two games apiece with a 6-1 triumph in Game Four. Rusty Staub drove in five runs, with a three-run home run in the first and a two-run single in the fourth. Matlack allowed three hits in 8.0 innings to pick up the win.

New York took a 3-2 series lead with a 2-0 win at Shea in front of 54,817 fans in Game Five. Jerry Koosman and McGraw shut out the A's on three hits.

Needing just one win in Oakland to capture their second championship, the Mets lost Game Six, 3-1 and Game Seven, 5-2. In Game Six, Reggie Jackson had two RBI doubles off Tom Seaver.

Four Oakland runs in the third inning on home runs by Bert Campaneris and Jackson in Game Seven broke the game open. Garrett, the tying run in the ninth, popped out to end the series and New York's dream.

New York improved to 3-0 in the NLCS with a dramatic six-game victory, avoiding Houston ace Mike Scott in Game Seven.

The Mets returned to the postseason after a 13-year absence and lost Game One, 1-0. Scott hurled a complete-game, five-hit shutout with 14 strikeouts. Glenn Davis swatted a home run in the second inning for the lone run of the game.

Bobby Ojeda matched Scott in Game Two, with a complete-game, 5-1 victory to tie the series. Gary Carter had an RBI double in the fourth and Keith Hernandez added a two-run triple in the fifth.

In Game Three, back at Shea, the Mets fell behind 4-0, but Darryl Strawberry's three-run home run in the sixth helped tie the game. Trailing 5-4, with one on and one out, Lenny Dykstra cracked a two-run home run into the Mets bullpen to give New York a 6-5 victory.

Scott again was brilliant in Game Four, tossing a complete-game, three-hitter as the Astros won 3-1.

Nolan Ryan and Dwight Gooden locked horns in a tremendous pitching duel in Game Five. Ryan allowed two hits (Strawberry home run) with 14 strikeouts in 9.0 innings, while Doc scattered nine hits in 10 innings. Carter's RBI single in the 12th gave New York the win and left them one win away from their third trip to the World Series.

Game Six at the AstroDome was simply a classic, the longest postseason game in time (4:42) and innings (16). Houston led 3-0 until the Mets tied it in the ninth on RBI's from Mookie Wilson, Hernandez and Ray Knight. With the Mets leading, 4-3, in the bottom of the 14th, Billy Hatcher hit a home run off the leftfield screen off Jesse Orosco. In the 16th, New York scored three times, Strawberry's double and Knight's single put the Mets ahead. Houston rallied for two runs, but Orosco struck out Kevin Bass with the winning run on base, to become the first pitcher to earn three wins in one LCS.

Below: Ray Knight races home with the winning run in New York's dramatic 7-6, 10th inning comeback in Game Six of the 1986 World Series vs. Boston...Knight scored from second on the play after Mookie Wilson's slow roller got past Red Sox first baseman Bill Buckner.

1986 WORLD SERIES

BOSTON RED SOX VS. NEW YORK METS

METS WON SERIES: 4-3

For only the second time in World Series history, a team lost the first two games at home, but emerged as the World Champion, as New York won its second title in amazing fashion against the Boston Red Sox.

In Game One, Bruce Hurst and Calvin Schiraldi combined to shut out the Mets, 1-0. Jim Rice scored the lone run on an error by second baseman Tim Teufel.

Boston scored nine times on 18 hits in a 9-3 win in Game Two.

In Boston, Lenny Dykstra led off Game Three with a solo home run to ignite a four-run first inning. Bobby Ojeda stymied the Sox through seven innings as New York won, 7-1.

In Game Four, Gary Carter cracked two home runs and Ron Darling's seven shutout innings helped the Mets even the series with a 6-2 triumph.

In the pivotal fifth game, Hurst tossed a complete-game for the Red Sox as Boston won, 4-2.

The Mets returned to Shea for Game Six in a contest that would become part of World Series lore. New York, facing elimination, trailed 2-0 in the bottom of the fifth, 3-2 entering the bottom of the eighth and 5-3 going to the bottom of the tenth. Ray Knight's RBI single helped tie the contest in the fifth and Carter's sacrifice fly tied the game in the eighth. After Dave Henderson's home run had put the Sox ahead in the 10th, both Backman and Hernandez were retired. But Carter, Kevin Mitchell and Knight followed with singles to cut the deficit to 5-4. Boston reliever Bob Stanley was summoned and on a 2-2 count, Mookie Wilson fouled back two pitches before dodging a wild pitch that allowed Mitchell to score to tie the game. Wilson then hit a dribbler up the first base line that bounced under Bill Buckner's legs enabling Knight to score the winning run.

After a day of rain, the Mets won their second World Championship with an 8-5 triumph. Boston built a 3-0 lead, but New York scored three runs in the sixth, two runs coming home on a single by Hernandez. Knight's seventh inning home run gave the Mets the lead for good. Santana and Hernandez would drive in runs later in the inning and Darryl Strawberry cracked a solo home run in the eighth. Orosco struck out Marty Barrett for the final out as Shea erupted in euphoria. Knight was named the Series MVP.

Despite beating the Dodgers in 10 of 11 match-ups during the regular season, Los Angeles knocked off New York in seven games. It was the first time in four NLCS appearances that the Mets failed to reach the World Series.

New York rallied for three runs in the ninth inning to take Game One, 3-2. Darryl Strawberry had an RBI double in the inning and a two-out, two-run double by Gary Carter proved to be the difference.

The Dodgers scored five runs off David Cone in the first two innings of Game Two and went on to win, 6-3.

In a steady cold rain, the Mets won Game Three, 8-4. Trailing 4-3, the Mets scored five times in the bottom of the eighth. A two-out RBI double by Wally Backman tied the game and Mookie Wilson's RBI single gave the Mets the lead for good.

The turning point of the series occurred in the ninth inning of Game Four when Mike Scioscia's two-run home run off Dwight Gooden tied the game, 4-4. Kirk Gibson cracked a home run off Roger McDowell to win the game in the 12th as Los Angeles tied the series.

Gibson remained hot and belted a three-run home run in the fifth inning to lift the Dodgers to a 7-4 victory in Game Five.

On the brink of elimination, Kevin McReynolds went 4-4 with three RBI and Cone hurled a complete-game in a 5-1 Game Six win to force a seventh and deciding game.

Orel Hershiser tossed a complete-game, five-hit, 6-0 shutout to beat the Mets in Game Seven. Los Angeles scored five times in the second inning to break open the contest.

The Mets returned to the postseason for the first time since 1988, and defeated Arizona in the NLDS in four games.

John Olerud and Edgardo Alfonzo each touched up Randy Johnson for home runs as the Mets built a 4-1 lead in Game One. The Diamondbacks tied the contest in the sixth, but Alfonzo walloped his second home run of the night, a grand slam, in the ninth to lift New York to an 8-4 win.

Arizona captured Game Two, 7-1, behind Steve Finley's five RBI to even the series.

Back in New York and with Mike Piazza on the bench for Game Three with a bad thumb, the Mets scored six times in the sixth to beat the D-Backs, 9-2. Olerud and Darryl Hamilton each collected two RBI.

In the fourth game, in front of 56,177 fans at Shea, the Mets trailed, 3-2, but Roger Cedeño tied the game in the eighth with a sacrifice fly. In the 10th, back-up catcher Todd Pratt ended the series and sent the Mets to the NLCS with a solo walk-off home run off Matt Mantei that landed just out of the reach of Finley. Longtime Met John Franco earned his first postseason victory.

Atlanta outlasted New York in a dramatic six-game series.

Gerald Williams had an RBI single to break a 1-1 tie in the bottom of the fifth inning as the Braves went on to a 4-2 victory in Game One.

The Mets returned to Shea in a 0-2 hole after losing, 4-3, in Game Two. Brian Jordan and Eddie Perez each hit a two-run home run off Kenny Rogers in the sixth inning to erase a 2-0 Mets lead.

In Game Three, two Mets errors in the first inning allowed Atlanta to score the only run of the game in a 1-0 loss.

Trailing 2-1 in the bottom of the eighth, four outs from having their season end, New York responded in Game Four. John Olerud, who had hit a solo home run in the sixth, singled to centerfield in the eighth which plated two runs to give the Mets a 3-2 victory.

Game Five was a classic. A 15-inning, five-hour and 46-minute marathon was played in driving rain. The Mets led 2-0 in the first inning on a two-run home run by Olerud, but the Braves tied the game in the fourth. Seven New York relievers combined to hold Atlanta scoreless entering the 15th. The Braves took a 3-2 lead in the 15th when Keith Lockhart's triple off Octavio Dotel scored Walt Weiss. Shawon Dunston singled to center after a 12-pitch at-bat to lead off the 15th for the Mets. Matt Franco walked and Alfonzo sacrificed the runners over. Olerud was walked intentionally to load the bases. Todd Pratt walked to force home Dunston with the tying run. Robin Ventura then cracked a "grand slam single" as the Shea crowd exploded. As Robin rounded first base his teammates mobbed him, never allowing him to finish his trot around the bases, and thus officially settling for a single.

Trailing 5-0 after the first inning, the Mets battled back in Game Six. Darryl Hamilton would add a two-run single in the sixth and Mike Piazza crushed a two-run home run in the seventh inning to tie the game, 7-7. New York led 8-7 in the eighth and 9-8 in the 10th, but could not hold on. Rogers walked Andruw Jones with the bases loaded in the 11th to end the series.

For the first time in franchise history, the Mets qualified for the postseason in consecutive years. New York met the team that abandoned the city in 1958, the San Francisco Giants.

In Game One, the Giants scored four times in the third inning to break a 1-1 tie and won, 5-1.

Timo Perez, subbing for an injured Derek Bell, collected three hits and two RBI in Game Two. The Mets took a three-run lead into the ninth, but J.T. Snow hit a three-run home run to tie the contest. Jay Payton's RBI single in the 10th gave New York a 5-4 lead and John Franco struck out Barry Bonds to end the game.

Back at Shea for Game Three, the Mets trailed 2-1 until Edgardo Alfonzo's two-out, RBI double in the eighth. Benny Agbayani crushed a solo walk-off home run in the 13th to lift New York to a 3-2 triumph.

Bobby J. Jones hurled baseball's first postseason complete-game, one-hit shutout in 33 years as the Mets advanced to the NLCS with a 4-0 win in Game Four. Jeff Kent collected the only Giants' hit, a double in the fifth inning. Robin Ventura got the Mets on the board with a two-run home run in the first.

New York defeated its longtime nemesis, the St. Louis Cardinals, in five games to advance to its first World Series since 1986.

In Game One, Mike Piazza had an RBI single as the Mets jumped on top 2-0 in the first inning. Jay Payton and Todd Zeile cracked home runs in the top of the ninth to give New York some breathing room in a 6-2 victory.

In Game Two, the Mets never trailed, but let leads of 2-0, 3-1, and 5-3 vanish before Payton's ninth inning RBI single gave New York a 6-5 win.

The Cardinals ruined the Mets return to Shea scoring five runs in the first four innings en route to an 8-2 win in Game Three.

New York set a postseason record with five doubles in one inning (first) and scored seven runs in the first two innings in a 10-6 victory. Robin Ventura had three RBI, while Piazza, Todd Zeile and Benny Agbayani each chipped in with two RBI.

Mike Hampton closed out the NLCS and picked up his second win of the series with a complete-game, three-hit, 7-0 shutout in Game Five. Edgardo Alfonzo singled home Timo Perez in the first inning to set a new club record with 16 career post-season RBI. Ventura and Payton would add RBI singles later in the inning. Zeile's bases-loaded, bases-clearing double in the fourth put the game away. Rick Wilkins flew out to Perez in centerfield for the final out.

Hampton was named the NLCS MVP for his efforts. Mike finished with 16.0 scoreless innings, surrendering nine hits with 12 strikeouts. Zeile finished the NLCS hitting .368 (7-19) with eight RBI and Perez tied an NLCS record by scoring eight runs.

The Fall Classic was billed as the City's first Subway Series since 1956, as the Mets faced the New York Yankees.

In Game One, the Yankees jumped out to a 2-0 lead, but the Mets scored three times in the sixth on a two-run single by Bubba Trammell and an RBI single by Edgardo Alfonzo. The Yankees tied the game in the bottom of the ninth on a sacrifice fly by Chuck Knoblauch and won the game in the 12th on a two-out, bases loaded single by Jose Vizcaino.

Roger Clemens fired 8.0 shutout innings as the Mets fell, 6-5 in Game Two. The Mets scored five times in the ninth on a two-run home run by Piazza and a three-run shot by Jay Payton.

The World Series returned to Shea for the first time since 1986 and the Mets responded with a 4-2 victory in Game Three. Benny Agbayani laced an RBI double in the eighth to snap a 2-2 tie. John Franco earned the win after starter Rick Reed hurled 6.0 innings.

The Bronx Bombers scored single runs in the first three innings and hung on to beat the Mets, 3-2, in Game Four. Piazza's two-run home run put the Mets on the board in the third.

The Yankees topped the Mets, 4-2, in Game Five to win their third straight World Series. Al Leiter fired 8.2 brilliant innings, before Luis Sojo's ninth inning, two-out, RBI single to centerfield broke a 2-2 tie. Derek Jeter was named the Series MVP.

New York swept the Dodgers, three games to none, to advance to the NLCS. The Mets won Game One, 6-5, as Carlos Delgado went 4-5 with two RBI and David Wright chipped in three RBI. Delgado became the fifth player in major league history to have four or more hits with at least one home run in his first career postseason game. Carlos also tied the team record with four hits in a playoff game. In the second inning, Russell Martin singled to right, Shawn Green retrieved the ball and threw it to Jose Valentin, whose relay throw to Paul Lo Duca nailed Jeff Kent at the plate. Lo Duca then turned around and tagged out J.D. Drew trying to score. Tom Glavine posted his 13th career postseason victory in New York's 4-1 win over the Dodgers in Game Two.

Glavine fired 6.0 shutout innings. Billy Wagner notched his second save of the series with a 1-2-3 ninth inning. Endy Chavez collected two hits and Jose Reyes drove in two runs.

The Mets completed the sweep with a 9-5 triumph at Los Angeles. The Mets grabbed a 3-0 first inning lead, but the Dodgers regained a 5-4 lead after five innings. New York retook the lead with consecutive RBI singles by Reyes, Lo Duca and Carlos Beltran in the sixth inning. Green had three hits and two RBI. He also caught the final out (Ramon Martinez) of the series.

SHEA STADIUM SCOREBOARDS

In 2005, the New York Mets debuted four new full-color LED (light emitting diode) displays at Shea Stadium, including an up-graded video board, two new ribbon boards on the press level fascia, and a color message center above the ticket windows between Gates D and E.

The Diamond Vision video board in left-center field was replaced by a high-definition LED board manufactured by Mitsubishi Diamond Vision. The new display offers HDTV compatibility thanks to a 360% increase in horizontal resolution, from 310 x 174 pixels to 1,120 x 640 pixels. The new Diamond Vision is the same height as the old board, at 26 feet 3 inches, but has been widened from 35 to 46 feet, to provide a 16:9 aspect ratio. This is the third generation Mitsubishi Diamond Vision video board installed at Shea. The first board was installed in 1982, and that original board was replaced with a higher resolution CRT (cathode ray tube) board prior to the 1992 season.

For 2005, Whiteway Sign Company of Chicago, IL added two new ribbon boards and an exterior message board to the state-of-the-art LED scoreboard system that was installed in 2004. The new Whiteway boards utilize full-color 25mm pixel pitch LEDs capable of displaying high resolution video clips, photographs, logos, animations, and text. Each ribbon board is 160 feet wide by 4 feet high, with a resolution of 1936 x 40 pixels. The exterior message board is 24 feet wide by 8 feet high, with a resolution of 288 x 96 pixels.

The Mets LED scoreboard system, consisting of the main scoreboard in right field and two smaller auxiliary scoreboards down the left and right field lines, was installed prior to the 2004 season. It replaced an older light bulb display system that had been in place since 1987. Utilizing Whiteway 34mm LED technology, it provided increased brightness for daylight viewing and a 244% increase in resolution. One important feature that did not change was the board's ability to provide a constant display of all out-of-town game scores from both leagues. The main message board is 20 feet high by 63 feet wide, and contains 492,800 LEDs arranged into 98,560 pixels. The two auxiliary scoreboard displays measure 43 feet wide by 8 feet high, and each contain 122,880 LEDs arranged into 24,576 pixels. The video and scoreboard displays at Shea Stadium are operated by the Mets Video & Entertainment staff, led by Producer Vito Vitiello. Vito supervises a game day production staff of 18 people. The New York Mets organization is a member of IDEA, the Information Display & Entertainment Association, and has won several IDEA Golden Matrix Awards for excellence in video and scoreboard programming.

NEW YORK METS COMMUNITY OUTREACH

The Mets responsibility to give back to the community at large is driven by the topdown philosophy of "Doing Well While Doing Good" to leverage the appeal of and interest in the Mets to positively impact organizations and individuals through the development of platforms, programs, and initiatives. The Mets take great pride in our ongoing commitment to the social, cultural, and educational needs of the metropolitan area and our myriad ways to support them.

Through appearances by players, executives, staff and the use of human and financial resources, the Mets assist many facets of the community - schools, libraries, hospitals, museums, and youth baseball leagues, to name just a few. The combined effort of our entire organization, volunteers within the community, and the generosity of Mets sponsors and partners accelerate current significant commitments to the community with new resources to develop and launch outreach platforms and programs in and beyond New York City.

EDUCATION

SCHOOL IS AMAZING

The New York Mets School is Amazing program, sponsored by health insurer GHI and supported by the New York City Department of Education, reinforces the benefits of education and attendance and provides middle school students the opportunity to express what they most enjoy about school. Mets players visit five schools, selected by the DOE every spring, and as a reward for academic excellence and/or improvement in their school work, 5,000 students throughout the five boroughs enjoy a Mets game at Shea Stadium courtesy of the Mets and GHI.

POWER LUNCH

Since its founding in 1991, the Everybody Wins! Foundation has been a leading non-profit literacy and mentoring organization, pairing caring adult volunteers with children in elementary schools for weekly reading and conversation. For the past seven years, Mets employees have been matched with a fourth or fifth grader at PS 92 in Corona, Queens, to share lunch and a good book every week from November through May.

SUMMER READING CLUBS – NYC PUBLIC LIBRARIES

The New York Mets are longtime partners with the Queens, New York, and Brooklyn Public Libraries, encouraging children in all boroughs to join the New York State Summer Reading Program at their local branch library. The Mets conduct a public service campaign, produce bookmarks, and annually donate 5,000 tickets to a Summer Reading Club Night at Shea Stadium.

JACKIE ROBINSON FOUNDATION

As part of a landmark partnership, the Mets and Citi have teamed up to build upon the Mets' longstanding relationship with the Jackie Robinson Foundation.

This three-way partnership will directly support the Jackie Robinson Foundation's education and leadership development program, which provides extensive mentoring and scholarships for college students who exemplify Jackie's humanitarian ideals and standard of excellence.

In 1996, as a lasting tribute to Robinson, the Mets established an endowed scholarship with the Foundation, which are created in perpetuity, to assist promising students in reaching their goals through a college education.

STUDENT ATHLETE LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE SERIES

The Mets/Sharp Electronics Student Athlete Leadership Conference Series trains more than 1,200 student-athletes from 40 high schools on Long Island to deliver drug and alcohol abuse prevention programming to grade school children.

Conducted at Molloy College in Rockville Centre, LI, the workshops prepare the Student Athlete Leaders for their ongoing visits with fifth graders in their school districts. This Student Athlete Leadership Team promotes positive activities such as sports while also educating students about the dangers of drugs and alcohol.

WEATHER EDUCATION DAY

The Mets and their broadcast television partner CW11 have teamed up to launch an educational and entertaining field trip for students prior to a weekday game at Shea. CW11 weather experts, Mr. G and Linda Church, join Mets players for the pre-game event. After getting the forecast, the kids settle in for an afternoon of Mets baseball.

CYBERCHASE

The Mets and Cyberchase, the award-winning math mystery cartoon series on PBS, hosted the inaugural Cyberchase Day at Shea last September. Fans in attendance saw the world premiere of CYBERCHASE For Real clip featuring Mets starting pitcher John Maine on Diamond Vision and were entertained pre-game by Cyberchase host Harry and his cyberbird pal Digit.

HELPING HANDS

HOLIDAY PARTY

The Mets turn the Diamond Club of Shea Stadium into the North Pole for their annual Holiday Party for Kids in December. Local school children are treated to a buffet lunch before they perform their favorite songs of the season for their classmates and teachers. This sets the stage for the entrance of Santa Claus, who looked very much like John Maine this year and gave each child a gift that had been selected and wrapped by Mets employees. Santa's helpers included Oliver Perez and Willie and Gretchen Randolph.

WINTER WARM-UP HOLIDAY COAT DRIVE

The New York Mets and SportsNet New York host the "Mets Warm-Up Holiday Coat Drive" in December in conjunction with New York Cares. There has been an overwhelming response from Mets fans as 1,700 people have donated 2,750 coats over the past two years. Each donor received a voucher for two tickets to a Mets home game.

BLOOD DRIVE

The New York Mets have hosted a blood drive for the New York Blood Center for over 20 years. Originally staged in Stadium Gate A prior to one home game each year, two collections are now conducted in the Diamond Club in January and July. The January 14, 2008, blood drive maintained the recent average collection of 250 pints as the Mets continued their tradition of giving each donor two tickets to a Mets home game.

SPORTS WRAP

Rock and Wrap It Up (RWU) is a non-profit organization dedicated to the alleviation of hunger. The Sports Wrap program has been coordinated with the Mets and the Aramark Corporation for the past two years at Shea Stadium. Food that was prepared but not sold is recovered after each home game, picked up at the stadium by RWU and delivered to area shelters.

LET'S GO KIDS!

HealthPlus takes kids out to the ballgame through their "Let's Go Kids!" ticket program. Local youth organizations invited to Shea Stadium as guests of HealthPlus receive Mets caps and a select few get the chance to step on the field before a game to meet a Mets player.

RECREATION

MAJOR LEAGUE WHEELCHAIR SOFTBALL TOURNAMENT

The United Spinal Association Mets, a Division I wheelchair softball team sponsored by the United Spinal Association and the Mets, hosts the only Major League Wheelchair Softball Tournament in the parking lot of Shea Stadium with the assistance of New York City's Parks Department. This annual tournament is open to all teams that are affiliated with a Major League franchise. Past participants have included the United Spinal Mets, Magee Phillies, Tampa Bay Devil Rays, RIC Cubs, Vaughn White Sox, NEPVA Red Sox, Courage Rolling Twins and Oakland A's.

KID FITNESS

The Mets and Kid Fitness, public television's award-winning health and fitness show for children, hosted their inaugural Kid Fitness Education Day at Shea last season for more than 5,000 elementary and middle school students from New York City. Kid Fitness combines physical activity and nutrition components to keep children physically fit.

MR. MET DASH

After select home games, children ages 12 and under head to the field to run the bases. Mr. Met is stationed on the field to cheer on the participants as they take the same route as their favorite Mets players.

RUN TO HOME PLATE

The annual New York Road Runners/New York Mets Run to Home Plate, sponsored by Delta Airlines, has become a tradition since its inaugural race at Shea Stadium 12 years ago. This unique 5K course begins in the parking lot at Shea, continues through Flushing Meadow Corona Park and around the Unisphere before heading back to Shea for a grand entrance through the centerfield fence. Then it's a stretch drive down the first base line warning track for a finish near home plate. After the adult race, minor league races are conducted inside the stadium for kids from 2 to 14 years old. All participants receive a race towel, t-shirt and Subway sandwich.

Donations are collected on race day for St. Mary's Foundation for Children, located in Bayside, Queens, and all runners are encouraged to take advantage of a discount ticket offer for a Mets game on the following weekend.

YOUTH BASEBALL

POLICE ATHLETIC LEAGUE

The Mets and the Police Athletic League (PAL) have been partners since 1983 in bringing baseball to thousands of New York City youngsters. In addition to financial support for the Mets Rookie League, enabling 4,800 boys and girls to play ball in all five boroughs, the Mets host an annual PAL All-Star Day at Shea and donate 24,000 tickets to the PAL's Summer Playstreet program.

GREATER NEW YORK SANDLOT ATHLETIC ALLIANCE

The Greater New York Sandlot Athletic Alliance (GNYSAA) is "Serving New York City Children Through Baseball" as an umbrella organization to several metropolitan amateur baseball organizations representing 20,000 young people and 1,100 teams each year. The Mets host the GNYSSA's annual All-Star Games for 15-16 and 17-18 year old players and provide financial support to citywide tournaments and programs of member organizations.

YMCA JR. METS

The Mets Foundation and the KeySpan Foundation team up to sponsor the YMCA Jr. Mets, an eight-week instructional program presented by the YMCA in Queens and Brooklyn throughout the summer. Fun, participation, fitness, team play and family involvement are emphasized. The Mets provide members with caps, tickets to a game and arrange for team coaches to visit a YMCA site for a baseball clinic.

HARLEM RBI

Harlem RBI is a community based youth development program in East Harlem which provides year-round academic enrichment and sports programs to over 650 youth ages 7 to 18.

Carlos Beltran was named "Honorary Commissioner" of Harlem RBI in 2006, donating $58,000 to Harlem RBI's REAL Kids Program as a result of his pledge of $500 for every RBI he recorded. In 2007 the Mets Foundation matched that pledge, which nearly doubled the contribution to $112,000. Carlos also hosts two clinics for REAL Kids participants - at Harlem RBI's Field of Dreams and Shea Stadium - and makes his personal luxury suite at Shea Stadium available to the kids. He and the Mets Foundation have renewed this commitment for the 2008 season.

AQUAFINA/MLB PITCH, HIT & RUN

Pitch, Hit and Run -- the official skills competition of Major League Baseball -- is a free grass roots program which encourages youth participation and emphasizes the fun of baseball. The competitor's ability to hit, run and throw is tested at regional trials and compared with others in his or her age group across the United States to qualify for the National Finals held during Major League Baseball's All-Star Game. The Mets host an on-field regional competition and recognize the local winners in a pre-game ceremony

EQUIPMENT COLLECTION DRIVE

To support the growth of youth baseball and softball, the Baseball Tomorrow Fund (BTF) has teamed up with MLB Clubs to organize equipment collection drives across the United States. The Mets have collected over 1,000 baseball and softball bats, gloves, balls and catcher's gear the past two seasons to benefit local youth baseball organizations. The BTF also presents a grant of $5,000 to go toward the purchase of additional equipment. DHL, the official express delivery and logistics provider for MLB and the Mets, donates its delivery services.

FUNDRAISING

WELCOME HOME DINNER - THE LEUKEMIA & LYMPHOMA SOCIETY

There's always an Opening Night after Opening Day for the Mets when the team follows its home opener at Shea Stadium with its annual Welcome Home Dinner at the Hilton New York. The entire organization attends this celebration that welcomes the players back to New York to kick off the home season. The Mets have raised $1.3 million since 2006 for The Leukemia & Lymphoma Society, which will be the beneficiary again on April 8, 2008.

RELAY FOR LIFE - AMERICAN CANCER SOCIETY

The New York Mets will host their fourth Relay for Life at Shea Stadium on May 17, 2008, for the American Cancer Society of Queens. Shea is the only Major League Baseball stadium to be used for this national fundraising event which has raised $285,000 since 2005. Relay for Life is a fun-filled, non-competitive, event designed to celebrate survivorship and raise money for research and programs for the ACS of Queens. During the day and into the evening, teams of people gather and take turns walking or running laps.

A NIGHT TO BELIEVE - PROJECT A.L.S.

A Night to Believe, a fundraiser sponsored by the Mets in the picnic area of Shea Stadium, has raised $600,000 in four years for Project A.L.S. and their fight against Lou Gehrig's Disease. The Mets host a special celebrity batting practice before the major leaguers take the field as a thank-you to a theatre and entertainment community that so loyally supports this cause.

SUMMER AT SHEA - CITY PARKS FOUNDATION

Since the Mets and the City Parks Foundation joined forces in 1999 for their first Summer At Shea picnic area benefit, the event has raised $1.6 million for the hundreds of free arts, sports and education programs the Foundation brings to 700 parks and 600,000 children and adults across New York City's five boroughs each year.

STARLIGHT NIGHT AT SHEA - STARLIGHT STARBRIGHT CHILDREN'S FOUNDATION

The Starlight Starbright Children's Foundation provides innovative programs and services that entertain, educate, inspire and help restore the laughter and happiness that illness takes away from children. Their partnership with the Mets and Aramark, who generously donate the catering, has brought in $550,000 over the past five years for the NY*NJ*CT chapter and allowed thousands of children to enjoy a night together at Shea.

BRING HOME THE CURE - JUVENILE DIABETES RESEARCH FOUNDATION

The Mets have served as the official "starters" for the Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation's Fall Walk recruitment campaign. In just four years, Bring Home the Cure at Shea has generated over $1 million towards finding a cure for diabetes by motivating walk participants to register online and set their monetary goals. Each of these early registrants receives a ticket to this celebration at Shea as a thank-you.

JACK LANG DAY - EPILEPSY FOUNDATION

In memory of Hall of Fame sportswriter Jack Lang, the Mets have designated April 26, 2008, as Jack Lang Day at Shea. The Lang family selected the Epilepsy Foundation of Long Island as their charitable partner for a fundraiser to be conducted that same day to raise awareness of this disorder which effects Jack's grandson and over 40 million people worldwide.

METS FOUNDATION

MISSION

The New York Mets Foundation funds and promotes a variety of educational, social and athletic programs and other charitable causes. Founded in 1963, it continues its mission to invest in the future of our community, and to provide assistance to myriad organizations that benefit children and others in need.

A registered 501© 3 charity, the Mets Foundation takes no portion of the funds raised to offset internal costs. The New York Mets pay 100% of the Foundation's overhead to ensure that the entirety of a donation is directed toward helping others.

For more information on the Mets Foundation, log onto Mets.com.

TEAMMATES IN THE COMMUNITY

The Mets Foundation partners with the individual causes and foundations of Mets players. The Foundation's inaugural Teammates in the Community charity fundraiser held last June at Richards in Greenwich, CT more formally introduced this commitment. A sold-out crowd of 400 guests helped raise more than $500,000, which will be distributed by the Mets Foundation to a variety of worthy causes selected by Mets ownership and players who participated in the event's live auction. Carlos Beltran, Carlos Delgado, Jose Reyes, Scott Schoeneweis, Billy Wagner, David Wright, Willie Randolph, Omar Minaya, Tom Seaver and Rusty Staub were in attendance.

The Mets Foundation matched the personal fundraising efforts of Carlos Beltran ($500 for each RBI to Harlem RBI), Carlos Delgado ($100,000 flat donation to his own Extra Bases Foundation) and Billy Wagner ($1,000 for every save to the East Harlem Tutorial Program and the Second Chance Learning Center in Virginia) in 2007.

The David Wright Foundation provides financial support, raises awareness for those in need and financially assists other charitable organizations. The Foundation pays special attention to multiple sclerosis and children's causes.

The Willie Randolph Foundation supports programs and initiatives in the New York metropolitan area that enhance athletic opportunities for boys and girls.
